

	"La Poiana" Hotel-Restaurant In Barrea Lake (AQ) "La Poiana", situated in the very heart of National Park of Abruzzo, next to Mountain Greco, is a hotel built on an ancient '800 farmhouse, completely restored, where hosts have to find a nice place to sleep and eat in the green and peaceful atmosphere of the surrounding landscape. The name "La Poiana" means a particular race of birds of prey that live in this area. An old legend tells that the hotel was the house of the "White Horse Knight Ghost" and after the house of "Mazzambregle" a mysterious and frightful red dressed man.
